¹ Civilian labor force, employed, and unemployed estimates are by place of residence. Current year estimates are preliminary; year-ago estimates are revised. Items may not add due to rounding. All data exclude members of the Armed Forces.

² Total employment includes nonfarm wage and salary workers, agricultural workers, unpaid family workers, domestics, the self employed, and workers involved in labor disputes.

³ People are classified as unemployed, regardless of their eligibility for unemployment benefits or public assistance, if they meet all of the following criteria: 1) they were not employed during the survey week; 2) they were available for work at that time; and 3) they made specific efforts to find employment some time during the prior four weeks. Persons laid off from their former jobs and awaiting recall and those expecting to report to a job within 30 days need not be looking for work to be counted as unemployed.

⁴ The unemployment rate is calculated by dividing the total number of unemployed by the total civilian labor force and is expressed as a percent.

⁵ Bangor; Lewiston-Auburn; Portland-South Portland-Biddeford; Portsmouth, NH-ME; and Rochester-Dover, NH-ME are Metropolitan Statistical Areas. Augusta, Brunswick, Rockland, Sanford, and Waterville are Micropolitan Statistical Areas.

⁷ Maine portion of the area which includes towns in both Maine and New Hampshire.

Maine Unemployment Rate 5.4 Percent in May

State Labor Commissioner Laura Fortman announced that the preliminary seasonally-adjusted May unemployment rate for Maine was 5.4 percent, up from 4.7 percent for April. The national unemployment rate for May was 5.5 percent.

"This is an unusually large monthly shift in the unemployment rate, and additional months of data will be needed to see if the higher rate is sustained," said Commissioner Fortman. "At this time of year there is a substantial flow of workers, particularly young workers, into the labor force. The impact of several factors – including the underlying state of the economy, the timing of the reference week for estimates each month, and the school schedules – can impact the month-to-month movement of labor market measures."

The unemployment rate increased from 4.7 percent for May 2007 to 5.4 percent for May 2008 as job growth slowed. The total number of nonfarm wage and salary jobs rose by 700. Job gains were recorded in health care and social assistance, professional and business services, and leisure and hospitality services. Job losses were registered in construction, manufacturing, financial activities, and information.

Other New England states reporting a seasonally-adjusted unemployment rate for May include New Hampshire, 4.0 percent; Massachusetts, 4.9 percent; Connecticut, 5.4 percent; and Rhode Island, 7.2 percent. The adjusted national rate for May was 5.5 percent, up from 5.0 percent for April and 4.5 percent for May 2007.

The not-seasonally-adjusted Maine unemployment rate for May was 5.2 percent, up from 5.1 percent for April and 4.5 percent for May 2007. The unadjusted national rate was 5.2 percent for May, up from 4.8 percent for April and 4.3 percent for May 2007. Not-seasonally-adjusted May unemployment rates for Maine counties ranged from 3.9 percent for Cumberland County to 9.5 percent for Piscataquis County.

Not-seasonally-adjusted nonfarm wage and salary jobs in Maine rose by 12,700 between April and May as employers continued gearing up for the summer season. The largest gains were recorded by leisure and hospitality services, construction, retail trade, and professional and business services.

² Regular teachers are included in summer months whether or not specifically paid in those months.

Average Annual Wage

Average annual wage changes are affected by several factors in addition to pay changes for individual workers including: ratio of full-time to part-time workers, number of individuals in high-paying and low-paying occupations, and industry employment growth and decline. For example, the average annual wage of an industry could increase when there is a large decline in the number of employees that had been receiving below-average wages.

Average annual wage gains in Maine ranged from 1.6 percent in other services to 5.0 percent in professional and business services
